

A kaleidoscopic fair in town!

Print Plus International Limited is once again holding their ever-popular summer shopping fair in the heart of Kowloon.

Known for their annual Kowloon Bazaar which has been successfully held for the past ten consecutive years, Print Plus is revamping its summer edition fair with a brand new venue.

Taking place on Friday, 19th May 2017 at the Marco Polo Hong Kong Hotel, TST, Kowloon, from 11am to 8pm, Summer Sparkles aims to bring a bit of bling to your shopping, as it features a wide range of bespoke fine jewelry, fashion designer wear, wines, accessories, and more. It is also a fun place to be for guests who simply love shopping, or mingling.

For shoppers, it is a unique experience of shopping under one roof with an array of vendors selling a variety of products and services. Laced with lucky draws, quality food and beverages, wine tastings, freebies and testers, it is an unforgettable day out for attendees and their families.

The shopping and lifestyle fair came about from an aspiration to provide a platform for vendors to showcase, market and sell their products and services to a mass of quality shoppers.

Further ahead, the flagship fair GlamFest will be held on Saturday, 2nd September 2017, at the Regal Kowloon Hotel. The products and services being exhibited this year range from authentic handicrafts, couture and designer wear, household items, lifestyle products and services, fashion accessories to gift items, and much more.

Both events, led by founder and directors Deepa Nainani and Neerja Sujanani, are expected to feature 40 to 60 vendors with approximately 2,000 to 3,000 shoppers during the day. The exhibitors comprise not only of unique local vendors, but also renowned international vendors.

Summer Sparkles

- Date: 19th May 2017 (Friday)
Time: 11am to 8pm
Venue: Marco Polo Hong Kong Hotel, Tsim Sha Tsui, Kowloon
Website: www.kowloonbazaar.com
Facebook: kowloonbazaar